CLASS OF 1958
BRIARCLIFF HIGH SCHOOL

In Memoriam

DONALD T. MALSIN

WILLIAM S. McHENRY

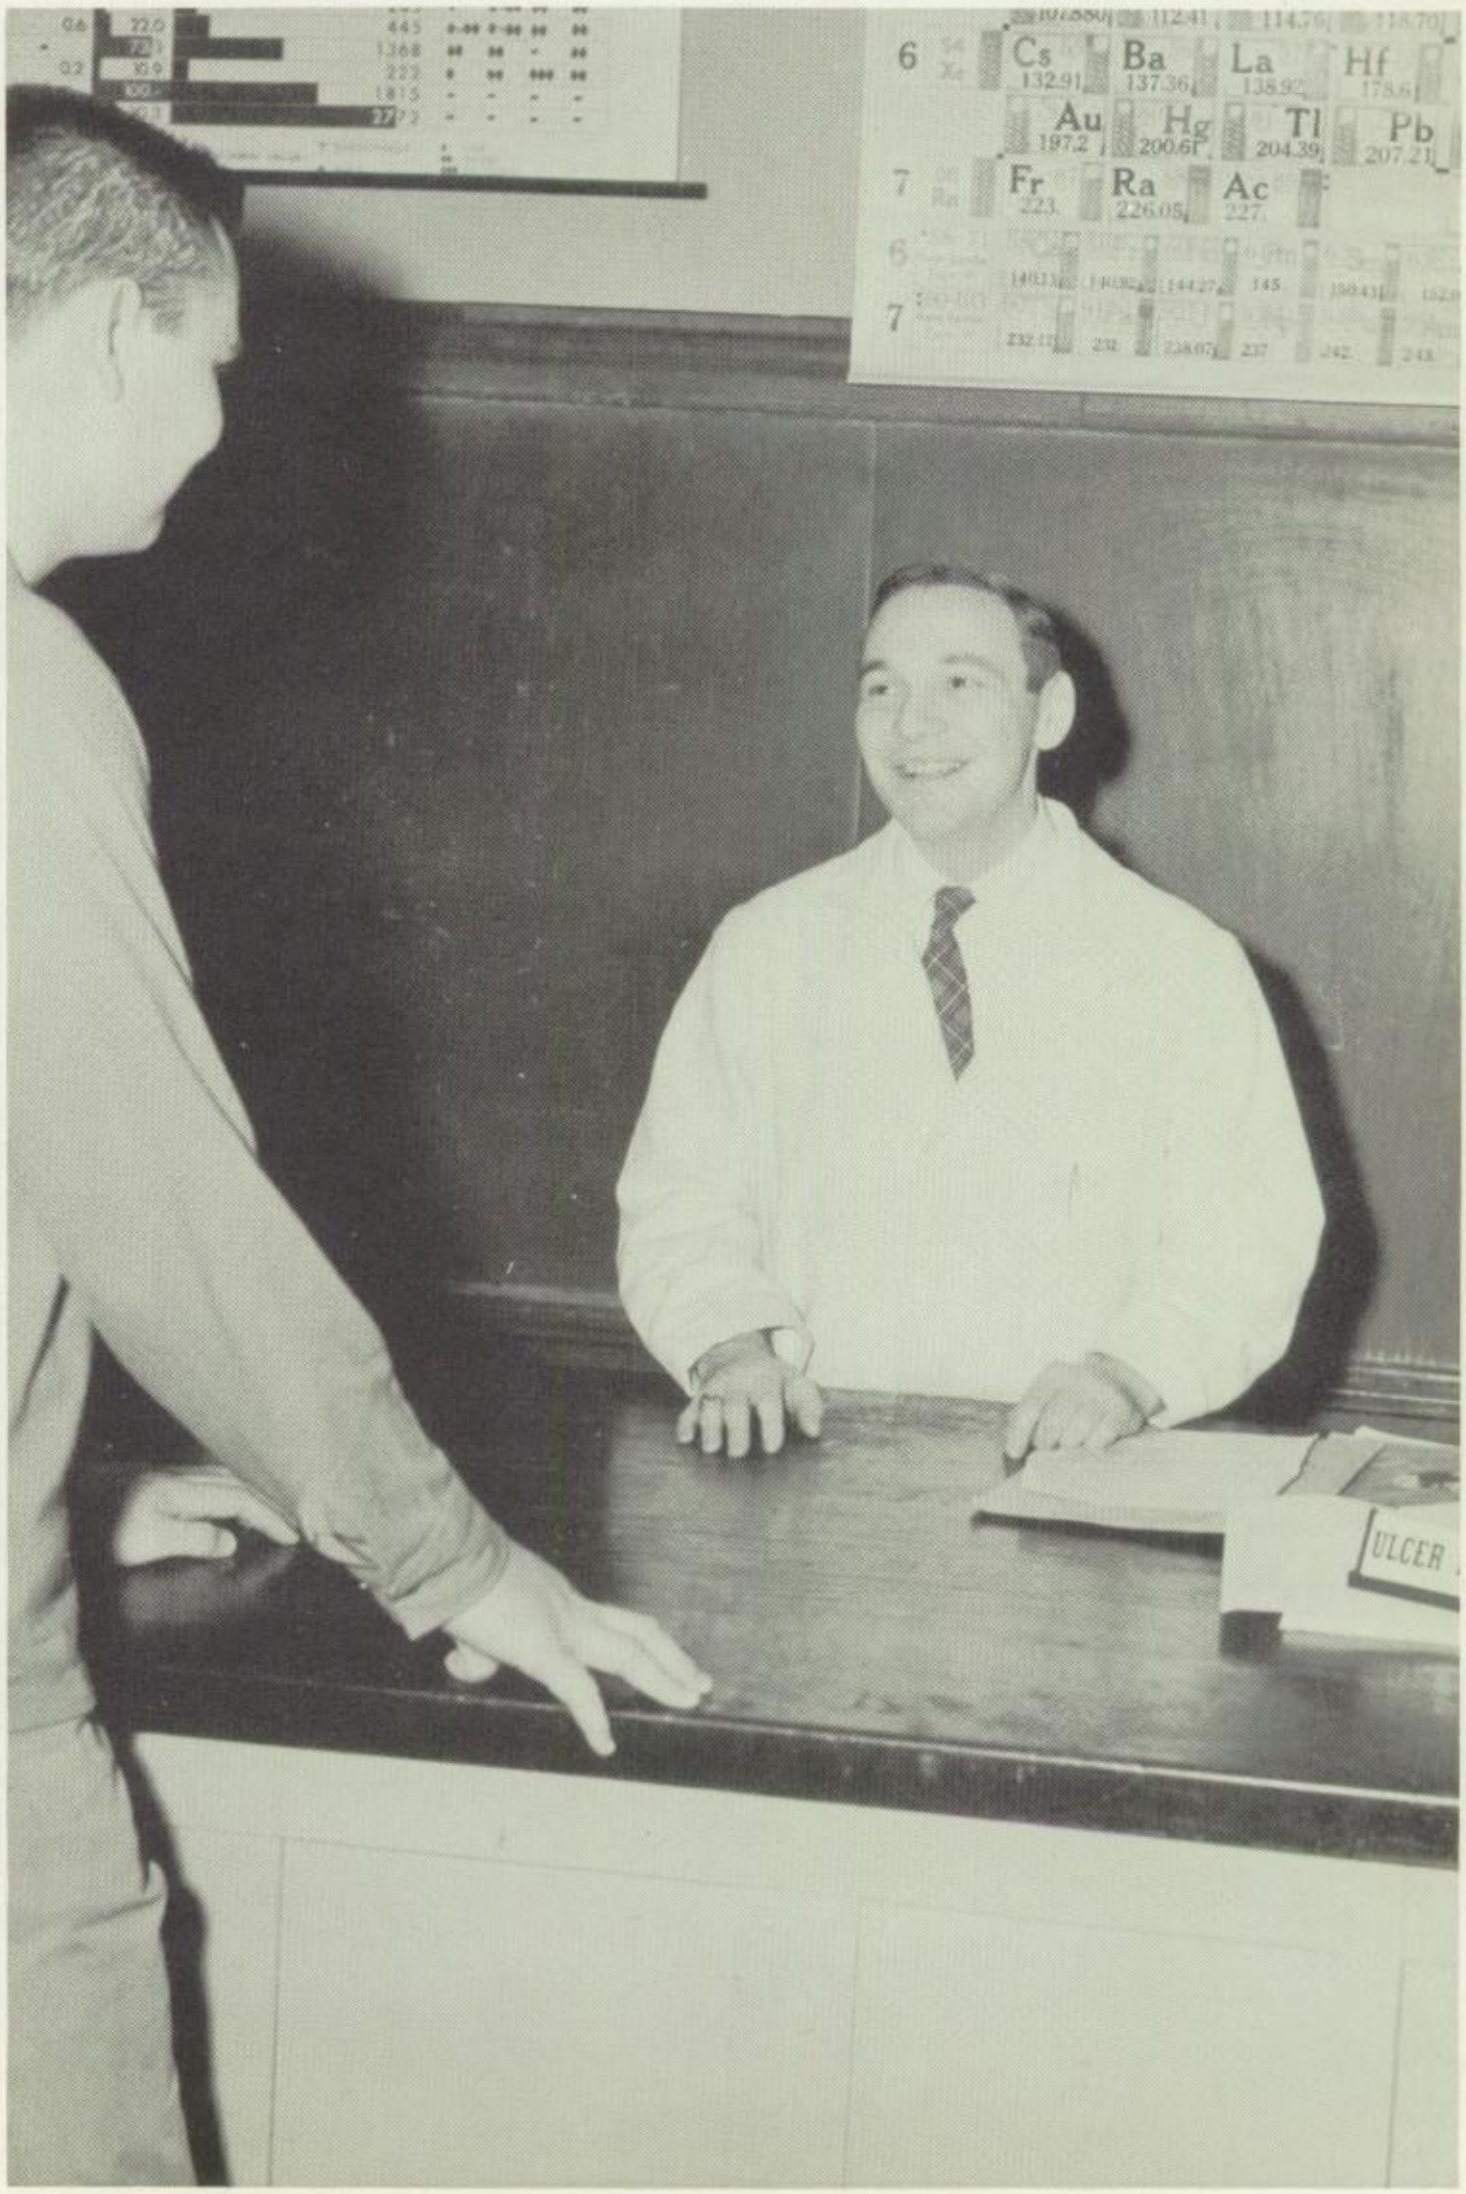
DAVID SHECHNER

MABELLE I. SIMPSON

And, when the stream
Which overflowed the soul was passed away,
A consciousness remained that it had left,
Deposited upon the silent shore
Of memory, images and precious thoughts,
That shall not die, and cannot be destroyed.

—William Wordsworth

As teacher, homeroom advisor, and friend, Mr. Starr has given our class the benefit of his good judgment and has inspired us by the high principles which he exemplifies. It is, therefore, with heartfelt thanks and deep respect that we, the Class of 1958, dedicate this book to MR. STANLEY STARR.



"And another book was opened, which is the book of life." –Revelation XX, 12

A SENTIMENTAL . . .

(Following are some carefully chosen selections from the Diary of the Class of 1958 from the day we walked into school in September, 1954, until we closed the door behind us for the last time in June 1958):

Dear Diary,

Today was the first day of school. Freshmen at last, we can hardly believe that we're "real high-schoolers!" Mr. O'Keefe is our class advisor and we have one big homeroom in the Study Hall . . . Initiation began today – we were supposed to wear pots on our heads, bathing suits over p.j.'s and carry our books in paper bags. It was lots of fun scrambling around on our hands and knees and being late to every class but what a madhouse – the teachers will never be able to put up with a whole week of this . . . Thank goodness it's Saturday; we were beginning to think this week would never end! At last the boys can scrub off all that messy lipstick and the girls can take those painful little pigtails out. The Initiation Dance last night was fun though; we'll never forget the look on Donna's and Sue Moyer's faces when they were told to tie two worms together!!! Buzzy came dressed as Little Lord Fauntleroy and licked a lollypop while Susan Sergenian hopped around on a pogo stick. Tommy Creighton, singing "C'est Si Bon" in Eartha Kitt Style, was the hit of an evening which closed with the Sophs slopping whipped cream, pies, soapsuds and everything under the sun on Dick R. and Bob E. . . .

Discussed calendar of projects in class meeting today. Lyn Smyth, our President, announced a square dance (Mr. O'Keefe's idea), a program of fairy tale ballets, a Suzari Marionette show, and a parent-teacher volleyball game . . . Dancing class tonight–Mr. Richards (Jeremiah C.) was late but we went ahead with the receiving line and later learned a new lindy step concluding with a grand march . . . Yesterday Mrs. Goldfrank's French classes went into the city to see "Die Fledermaus." Our seats were so high in the balcony that we couldn't see a thing; the real highlight of the day, however, was lunch at a French restaurant after which the waiters chased us out into the street shouting about our insufficient tips in French which our vocabulary didn't include. . . .

Dear Diary–Sorry to have gotten so behind in our day-to-day accounts but time has flown so ever since spring came that it's hard to believe we get out tomorrow FOR GOOD! Last night our whole class went to Playland. We really had a blast in spite of a few who looked a little green as they staggered from the Airplane Coaster and the Boomerang! . . . but now to bed and a good night's sleep so we can face up to those final grades tomorrow. . . .

It's great to be together again – everyone looking tan and healthy. With all these new kids from Valhalla, we're split into three groups now, with Mr. Starr, Mr. Mignogna and Mrs. Clark as advisors . . . What a maddening day! They've always had a whole week of initiation but now that it's our turn to run the show they've cut it down to two days. Friday night ought to be fun though. Our theme is a sort of underwater arrangement and we'll have mermaids and everything. P.S. The mermaids never made it but Joe C. was a riotous Neptune draped in a white sheet with some sort of crown and we gave those lowly Frosh all they deserved . . . School gets out at noon tomorrow for Xmas vacation and everyone's home this evening cooking for our food sale. . . .

It's awful to be back in classes after those great holidays; school can't compare with parties, ice-skating, movies and just sleeping late in the A.M.'s. Dick Roach, class president, announced that the cake sale was very profitable in spite of the fact that we ate almost more than we sold. He also asked for more people to deliver the N. Y. Times in the mornings – no one volunteered . . . We beat Bedford last night in our last basketball game of the season . . . Just because it's March doesn't necessarily mean spring's here – it snowed all last night and we woke up to a white world. Everyone waited anxiously for the no-school siren and hopped happily back into bed on hearing it . . . Now it really is spring. At least we get out for Easter on Thursday – we're having another cake sale that afternoon . . . Most of the class invaded Eve Deighton's jam session last night. The music was reallly great and it certainly was fun to mingle with "the big kids."

Judy Risher's party last night was like "Old-Home-Week." It's hard to believe we only have one more week of vacation! . . . We have a new Social Studies teacher named Miss Lungmus. She and Mr. Warner and Mrs. Clark are our homeroom advisors . . . Everyone seems rather staggered by the heavy, heavy schedules we have ahead of us. Most of us have five major subjects including such horrors as physics, French III and Advanced Algebra . . . What a fabulous day! First of all –thrill of thrills: That wonderful, welcome gentleman from the Balfour Co. came this morning and brought our beautiful class rings. "Proud" and "puffed-up" don't even begin to describe the way we felt as we ran around waving our hands in exaggerated gestures; making certain the honorable gems which proved us upperclassmen at last were not going unnoticed. Much argument was raised as to whether the blue was prettier than the amethyst, black or green. No sooner had we begun to get over this excitement than 3:15 rolled around and we all ran out to the football field to cheer the team (⅔ JUNIORS —of course!) on to victory over Yorktown in our first game this season. Those who could tear themselves away helped in our refreshment stand selling cokes, half-baked hot dogs, potato chips and candy on and off through the afternoon. Then to top an already super day, we all rejoiced and made merry at the Victory Dance at Rec. It certainly looks as if our joyous junior year is to be our best as a class . . . The Seniors gave "Stardust" last night and almost all of us who attended ended up at John Luhmann's hospitable open house to hash it over and look forward to our own dramatic debuts. . . .

Classes go on and on and on — and because today was Friday we had tests in EVERY subject . . . Began to sell bookcovers. Dick B. in his treasurer's report reminded us that our treasury is so empty that if one were to drop a coin in, one could hear it clink hitting the bottom. Realizing that we can't hitch-hike to Washington, we are doing some real high-pressure selling, threatening people's very lives if they refuse to buy fewer than five bookcovers apiece. . . .

Now that Xmas vacation is over and we have recovered somewhat from Emily's New Year's Eve Party, we find ourselves back to the grindstone. What are you supposed to do when teachers assign three term-papers to each student- Miss Lungmus, Mr. Warner, Mr. Stevens, Mrs. Carvolth and Mr. Tarrant are the heartless taskmasters responsible for our dreadful fate and are suitably unpopular right now . . . Many Juniors joined the fun at the Seniors' jam session this weekend. . . .

Yesterday the oil burner broke down and we were sent home cheering lustily although half-frozen . . . In the assembly today Carola Crowley announced that Dick B. and Joe C. were elected President and Vice-President respectively in last week's Student Council elections . . . Almost everyone's back in school now but some still resting up from the Junior Prom weekend. We planned for "June Night" (which was originally called "My Blue Heaven," and later "Pink Champagne" before we decided on "June Night"), for some time but there was nevertheless a tremendous amount of work to do. Beginning at about nine A.M. Saturday we dashed madly all over town collecting garden furniture, trellises, fake grass, flowers and greens, not to mention the scotch tape, staples and crepe paper which ran out every ten minutes. At about 6:30 all the decorators went home utterly exhausted but we appeared later done-up in our best finery and were entirely awake and alive as we whirled and swayed to the music until well after midnight and all clapped happily as our Prince and Princess, Al Schrade and Wilda Barber, were crowned . . . Here it is exam time already and in spite of the warm sun and deliciously cool blue pool, we all rushed home each day to cram . . . Today dawned bright and sunny which made all our Junior-Senior picnickers happy. When most of us were loaded into three of our Magee's buses it appeared that there was some misunderstanding about who had paid and who hadn't. Naturally everyone left the buses to join the cause and there ensued a highly spirited "discussion," the outcome of which was, that if everyone couldn't go, then no one would. Everyone couldn't go, so no one did. We packed into individual cars and headed for Echo Lake where we waited for the food to get back from Bear Mountain and then had an unofficial wonderful time. When it got too dark and food ran out, we went to Stu Bogdanoff's house where the "picnic" continued until late . . . What a weekend! School ended the day after Stu's party, then there was graduation, Barbara Dorr's party which the uninvited Juniors crashed and Chip McClelland's breakfast party which we missed. . . .

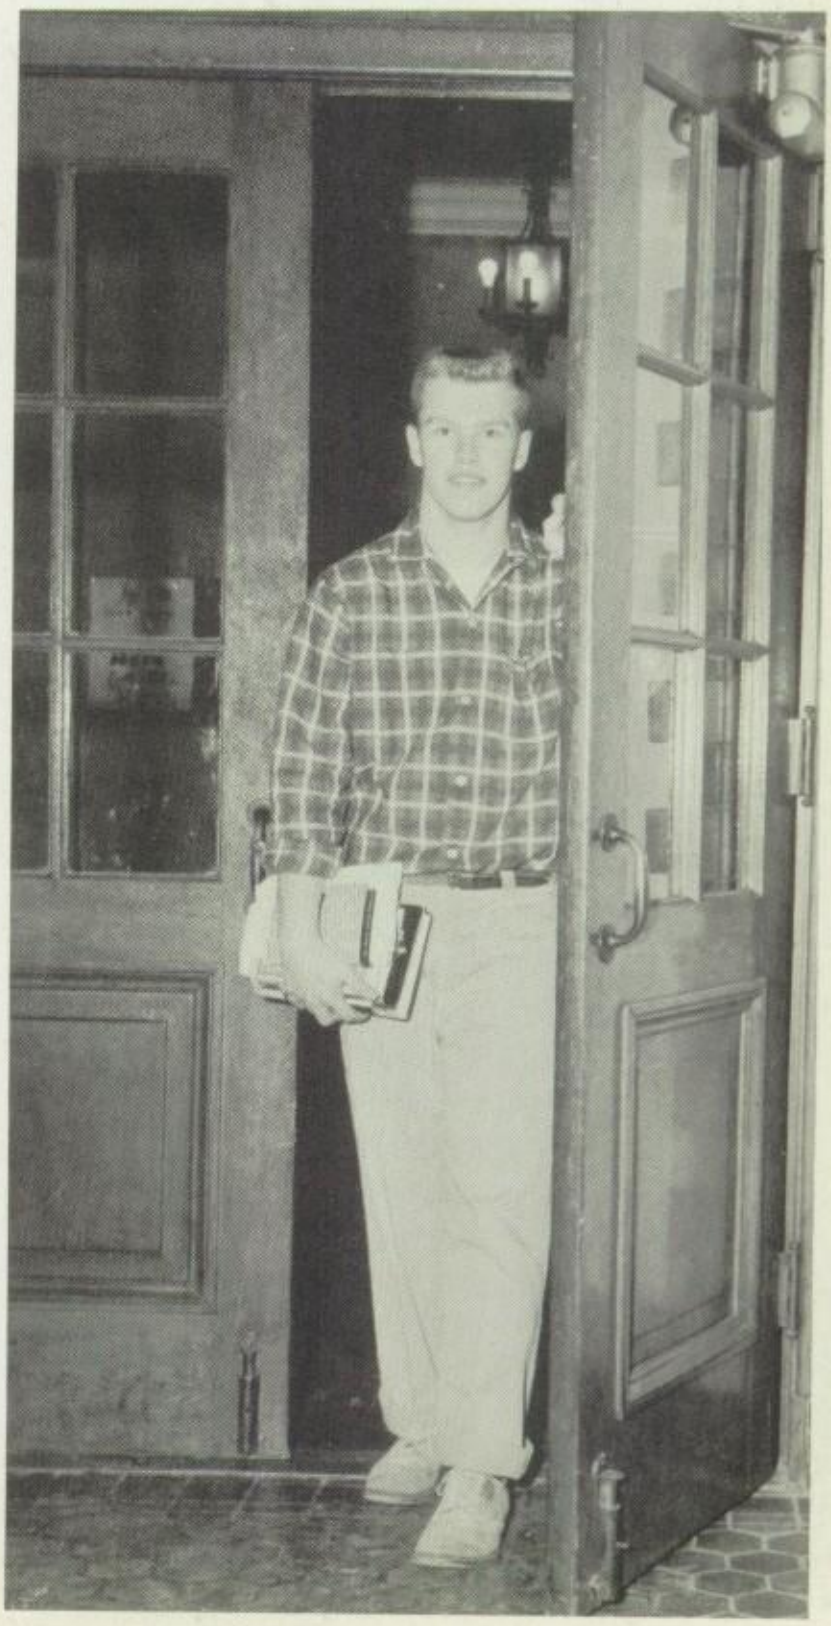
"My, but we've grown up." Everyone's expression reflected this thought today as we gathered together and moved into the auditorium's front rows, taking our rightful place as Seniors. Mrs. Carvolth, Mr. Gurka and Mr. Johnson are our advisors for this, our big year, and it is apparent even on this first day that there is much to be done. Not only do we have the reponsibility of the Student Council, Bulletin, Yearbook, and all committees but over, above, around and pervading all activities is college, college, college: conferences, visits, interviews, exams, applications and "Tea and Sympathy" with Miss Johns almost every day!! I guess we're a jinx on Junior-Senior picnics. Today when we were to be honored it rained and we ended up picnicking in the gym. Many went to Casey Jones' party later but no one ate in the great outdoors, or shared with the ants today! We lost the John Jay game today by only 1 TD. It was quite disappointing especially after the confidence and good cheer exhibited in the fiery glow of last night's bonfire . . . We got back the Senior portraits taken for the Bruin this week and spent several miserable days trying to decide which was the least miserable of the six shots taken of each

. . . Today will be remembered, surely, as the coldest Katonah College Conference on record! It snowed lightly all morning but by the time the conference came to a close there was a veritable blizzard raging outdoors. Because most of the school buses were stuck, we were all herded into the gymnasium where we danced, played basketball and carried on merrily until about 6 when hunger struck! Reports were reaching us that Freddy Horton had lost one bus in a snowdrift and just when the thought that we would surely be there all night unless evacuated by helicopters was beginning to get us down, we were rescued and crawled home through the snow . . . It's hard to believe that time has flown so fast, but last night was our last Christmas Dance and it was one of the best! In addition to Susan Sergenian's and Robin Bachman's songs and John Luhmann's jolly Santa Claus, our hosts did a bang-up job of entertaining. Mr. Beller, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Farrell in particular proved themselves talented musically and livened up the dance. . . .

What a time we had at our jam session tonight. We will all remember John Sergenian with his band and The Teachers' Combo with Mr. Johnson, Mr. Coe, and Mr. Beller and those crazy hats . . . College Boards, we thought they were bad last year! We should go through all this just for college . . . Why is it that all our term papers are due at the same time? Work, work, work . . . Well, we finally gave our own play, The Late Christopher Bean and though we never would have admitted it at the time, all those late practices were necessary and worth it . . . Some more people were accepted at colleges today. Maybe those dreadful tests are paying off . . . The Senior Ball, our Senior Ball, will we ever forget it? . . . We can hardly believe it. We are actually in Washington! The walking, the sights, the boat trip, we loved it all. It's over too soon. . . .

At last the end, graduation, but instead of elation we find ourselves very sad as we walk out of our school for the last time.



YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

GAY MULLIGAN leaves her "All-American Girl" look to Bonnie Bond.

KAREN McNAMARA leaves Mr. Matthews, Mr. Polivnick, the band and the chorus at a loss.
JIM McGEE leaves sadly, remembering the many happy lunch hours shared with Tom Casey.
LORRAINE HERRMANN, EMILY SCHAEFER, JOANNE KEILBERG and JANET MALLONEE leave their quiet ways to Judy Taylor, whose youthful vitality often gets the better of her.
GEORGE BEISHEIM leaves his "way with the women" to Dan Crawford, who seems to have enough charm of his own.
EMILY MALSIN leaves a free copy of her pamphlet, "How to Meet Deadlines," to the 1959 BRUIN staff.
NICK FEDORUK leaves his briefcase to Ben Butler, who can make the rounds with it next fall.
BOB WINKLER leaves his dancing shoes (still hot) to Chuck Elliott.
CAROLINE ASKEW leaves her sweet, innocent smile to Kathy McClement.
DICK ROACH would leave if he could get a bunch of fellows to give his car a push.
GEORGIA BAGGETT, BETH INGRAHAM, WENDY LOSEE and BARBARA STERN leave their talkativeness to be divided equally among Judy Van Wetering, Peggy Kochman, Anne Goldwater and Sharon Burke.
TOM CREIGHTON bequeaths his athletic ability to Alan Young.
DENISE FERRY leaves her poise and grace in ballet slippers to Joe Klass.
AL SCHRADE leaves his uncanny ability to talk his way out of any situation to Ned Tuttle, who gets into plenty of situations.
SUE SERGENIAN leaves Robin Bachman to sing alone at future jam sessions.
GEORGE PLUMER leaves as silently as he came.
RUTH WHARTON leaves her impish grin to Bruce Banker.
STU SIDNEY leaves his report cards on file to inspire the incoming frosh.
WILDA BARBER leaves quickly before the office realizes she owes three and a half more hours' detention.
JOE CALTAGIRONE wills his hearty laugh to Linda King.
SUE NICOL leaves burdened down with her tennis racket in one hand and William James' "Essays in Radical Empiricism" in the other.
AL DORIO just left for Otto's house.
JUDY RISHER leaves 9 sleeping bags and a gross of potato chips to Casey Jones for next year's slumber parties.
GEOFF COBHAM bequeaths his curly hair to Pete Guilmette, who complains that his just won't stay set.
KATHI LEHNARTZ leaves her merry laugh to echo in the halls and cheer everyone on those "blue Mondays."
PETE HOLDEN leaves his fan club of Sophomore girls broken-hearted.
CYNTHIA HEYNEN and ANNA PICUCCI leave their keen senses of responsibility to Joan Lescarboura.
JOHN LUHMANN leaves astride Foolscap in search of greener pastures.
ADELE GHIAZZA wills a copy of her memoirs, "My Twelve Years in Briarcliff," to the library.
MARK STACEY leaves with his name still on the second period study hall list.
MARY MILLS has left for France on the BULLETIN'S profits.
DAVE PARKS leaves the Seminar room littered with paper planes.
SUE MOYER leaves her diligence to Steve Locke, who needs it badly.
BUZZ WHITMORE bequeaths a pass for free rides in his Mercedes to the highest bidder.
ABBY HEIM leaves still disagreeing with Mr. Barrett.
JOHN ZIFICSAK leaves for Washington to help Uncle Sam with plans for a new guided missile program.
DIANE RUBY can't leave until she finishes typing her BULLETIN page.
JON ANDERSON leaves his hospitality to anyone whose parents enjoy company twenty-four hours a day.
VIC WINKLER leaves the New Hampshire accent he picked up rehearsing for "The Late Christopher Bean" to Mr. Yarbrough.
LOUIS ZUCCARENO bequeaths his tall, slender physique to Billy Joynes.
PATTY GRINAGER and DAVID MARTIN leave their artistic ability to Marilyn Blanchard, whose masterpieces shine in the halls.
JIM RIDOUT leaves in spite of the fact that he hasn't proved his point to Mr. Cormier yet.
DUDY leaves his large collection of "churchkeys" to Fred Colby.
BILLY ZUYDHOEK leaves a copy of "How to Stack Dishes Safely" and a pile of sticky trays in the back of the cafeteria.

GOVERNMENT IN ACTION

Aside from such worthwhile endeavors as instilling pep and vigor into rooters for the Bears, our Student Council has performed many noteworthy tasks. For example, it took useless money out of our pockets during the Student Activity Card Drive and turned it to such useful enterprises as paid assemblies; student buses to all away games and referees for home games; and Bulletin sponsorship. If these are not enough to commend the S.C., here are a few more:

1. The Student Council was instrumental in obtaining a late bus for Hawthorne students wishing to attend after-school activities.

2. The Student Council has run several successful Margaret Y. Jones Scholarship Fund "tag days," greatly increasing the scope of the Fund.

3. The Ticket-Taking Committee has coped successfully with the problem of ticket-taking at Todd School basketball games, and introduced several new services to handle the increased volume of viewers.

4. The Student Council has offered to sponsor clubs, and in one case actually has taken the load off teacher-supervisors.

5. The Student Council has joined the New York Association of Student Councils, in the belief that the problems of the smaller school will be more successfully met in this organization.

6. The Student Council was instrumental in inviting two foreign students from the Herald Tribune Youth Forum to visit us for two weeks. We all enjoyed the visits of Onder and Michael from Turkey and Jordan.

We are proud of all the Student Council has done for us this year.

Each Bulletin week begins calmly enough with assignments distributed on Friday and all sorts of resolutions – i.e. "I really will get my page in on time . . ." Little work, in most cases, gets done during the weekend and even on Monday each reporter and headline artist is thinking, "Well, I still have four more days," although the page editors are beginning to worry. Tuesday finds 3 or 4 headlines done and several articles ready to be dummied and corrected; by Wednesday these can be typed on the stencils and work begins to progress at a steadier pace. Then all of a sudden it's Thursday morning and the entire Bulletin must be written, corrected, dummied, typed, headlined, printed and stapled together by 5 o'clock when the custodians will turn out the lights and lock up whether we're out of the building or not!

In spite of incomplete information, last-minute scoops, a shortage of special pencils, entire pages typed on "un-special" typewriters and glaring spelling errors on the front page, the staff somehow has gotten a paper "on the stands" every Friday morning (even if they've had to come to school at 7:15 to staple it together).

Not only has the staff produced an issue every week, but at Thanksgiving and Christmas they put together Bulletins of record-breaking 20-odd pages complete with colored covers, puzzles, semester activity evaluations, feature articles on the Seminar leaders and sports reviews. As circulation increased by 100 copies a week, a new and better grade of paper and a creative department contributing poems, essays and fiction regularly have served to improve our school newspaper and make this Bulletin-year under the leadership of Mary, Lyn and Sue highly successful.

DEADLINE

BRUIN

This formal Bruin photograph can scarcely be said to give true picture of our 1957-58 staff. While the people are the ame, it is far from likely that one would ever find them all gether or so quietly attentive as shown here. The majority the layout planning sessions took place on living room rugs me sleepy Sunday afternoons while the better part of the erary material was typed frantically, sometimes as late as and 4 A.M. the night before the deadline.

Nor did our advertising and sales staffs do their work sitting own. Many underclassmen as well as Seniors could be found anvassing the local businesses, exerting all their persuasive abilities to sell advertising space which, under the direction of super-salesman Cathy Dalton, reached a record this year. Besides this, 350 subscriptions were sold by Gay's sales staff, making the 1957-58 book a financially profitable undertaking.

All Bruin staff members have received one benefit from this project – each one knows the entire "Reader's Guide to Prose Fiction" by heart as a result of our search for suitable book titles. Much more than this though, we have enjoyed the tremendous thrill of seeing our own creation in print, an exciting experience to be treasured and re-lived each time we open the Bruin's covers.

HILDREN, SING

Although the Chorus' ranks were somewhat depleted because of the band and Driver Ed. several 5th periods a week, every Friday found us all there in full force booming out "I'm Gonna Ride in the Chariot" and "God, Give Us Men" as well as many other spirituals, chorales and traditionally popular musical arrangements. Mr. Matthews, sleeves rolled up and feet tapping out the beat, made us shiver in our seats on the "bad" days with threats of cutting the group down to "48, 24 or even 12 if that's all that really want to work!" On mornings when we were feeling more musically inclined, however, much was accomplished and Mr. Matthews' humorous anecdotes and comments often left us laughing too hard to sing.

Joining us for several weeks apiece were Mr. Burton Phillips and Miss Dinehart of Potsdam Teachers College. Mr. Phillips added a great deal by virtue of his lively bow-ties and fine tenor voice while Miss Dinehart conducted us in "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" for two whole weeks when Mr. Matthews was serving on jury duty.

The Christmas Concert, with its traditional "Happy Birthday to Mr. M.", "Jingle Bells" and "The Night Before Christmas" and the Spring Concert were the musical highlights of our season.

Under the competent leadership of its new director, Mr. Polivnick, the band has become functional the year around. With additional rehearsals, five a week, the band has been able to diversify and extend its program. We will all remember the derisive oompahs offered by the band to visiting football teams and stirring strains of processionals and recessionals in all assemblies, as well as the traditional Christmas and Spring concerts.

THE GLADIATORS

Briarcliff High School's 1957 football squad, with Dave Parks and Dick Bartlett as co-captains, turned in a very creditable record of 3-3 in spite of the fact that the team had lost five lettermen from last year.

Loyal spectators including many alumni, teachers, and proud parents –often wind-whipped and frosty-toed–enjoyed potato chips and cokes and lustily cheered the team.

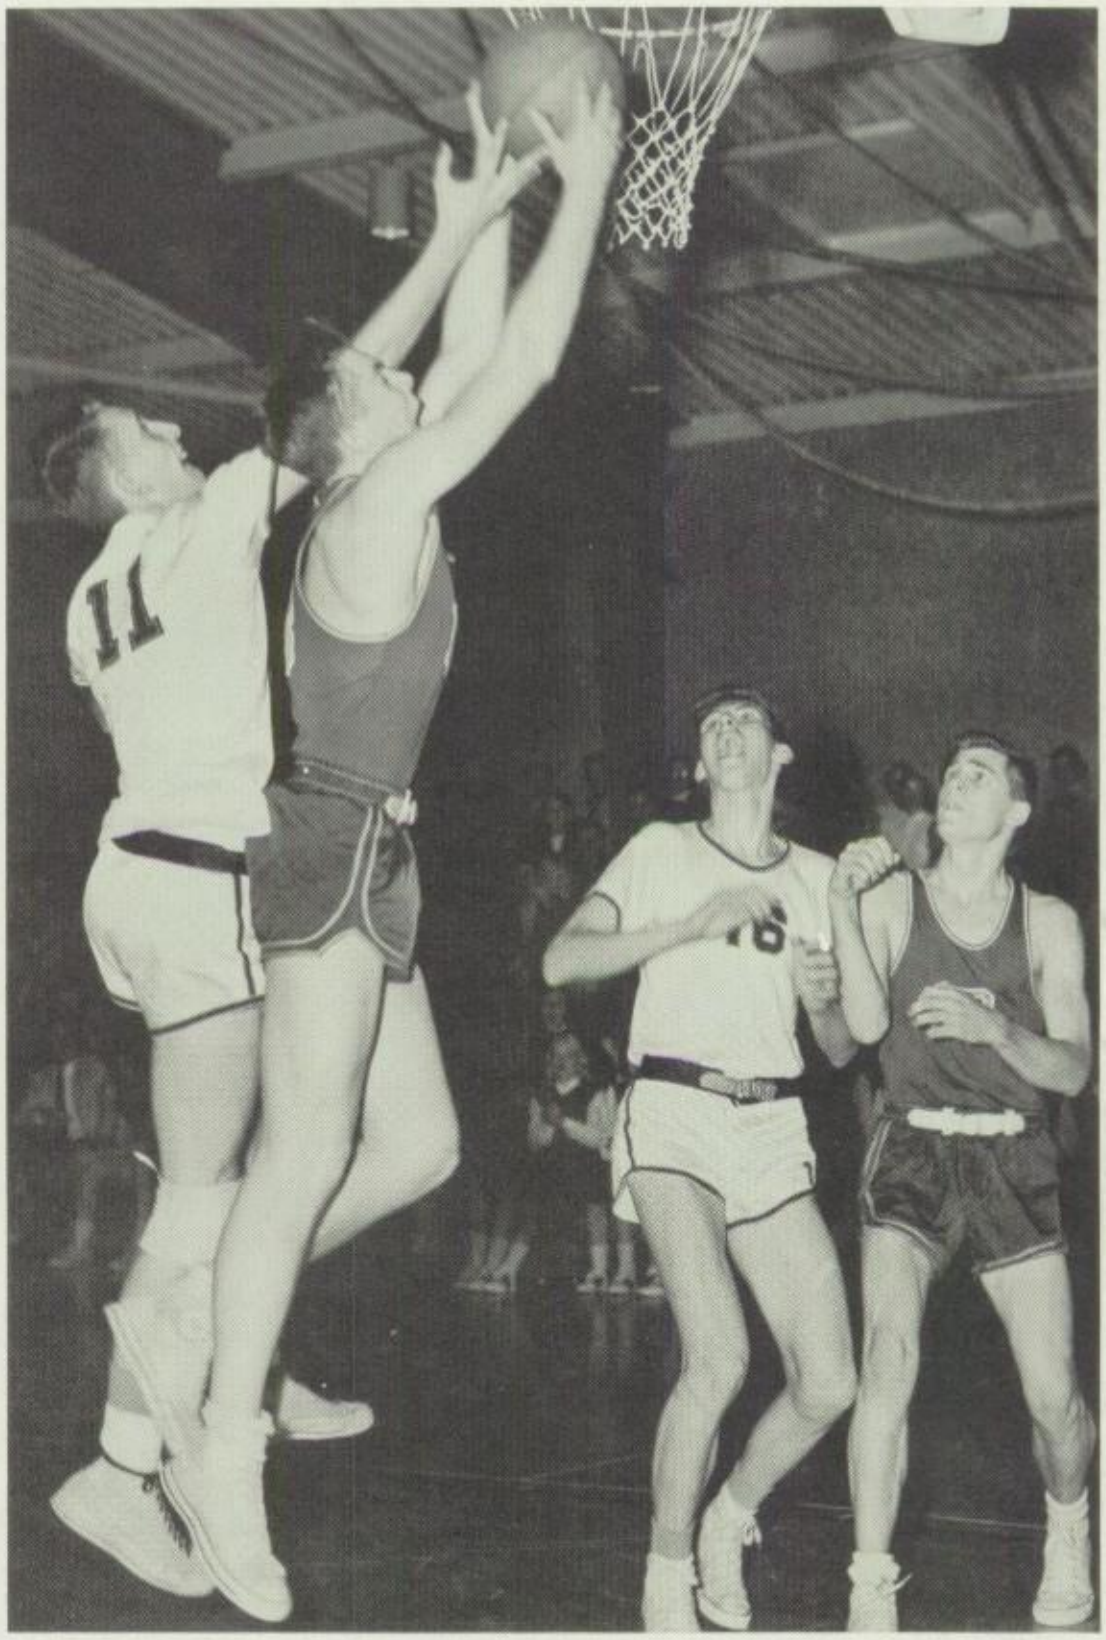
"Smash!"



REACH FOR THE SKY

"Basket, basket, basket, boys; you make the basket, we'll make the noise!" And noise we made! We shouted loudly enough even when the ball didn't drop through the hoop, but when it did, the roar of cheers was deafening. "Get that jump, Stu"; "C'mon George, sink it!" "Take it away, Dave"; "Over there, Mac – pass it!" As we left the gym later, the cool air felt good on our flushed cheeks and after a victory we didn't even mind that we were too hoarse to join in the singing "We won because we won because" . . . etc.

VARSITY

As the crowd screamed, Ossining soundly defeated our cagers in the first game of the new season. Our team must have taken the loss not as a defeat but as an incentive, for they outscored the next five teams, including Chappaqua, which they defeated for the first time in four years. Our next game was against Yorktown, later the league champs. We lost, a fourth period slump causing the defeat. Chappaqua edged us out with the reappearance of our fourth quarter slack, after three wins and a loss. Yorktown came to Todd to defeat us, again in the last quarter. We ended the season with ten wins and seven losses. George and Dave made most of our points. Mac kept the team together and always pulled thru when it got rough. Stu and Bob kept control of the boards. Let us not forget that good playing takes more than just good players. There must be a coach to encourage, to teach, and to keep the team from failing. We all thank Mr. Brennan for putting together a team of which we can be proud.

SPRING
IN THE AIR

Athletes loosening up and equipment coming out of moth balls were caught by our Bruin photographer as we rushed to meet our last deadline. Through these pictures of preparation for Spring and the boys' team schedules, we have tried to give a preview of Spring Sports. We feel the future looks bright. We hope you, looking back, can agree.

DOCTOR LAWYER PHOTOGRAPHER *

When you think about it, the family photographer falls somewhere in the family doctor-lawyer classification. The photographer, like the doctor and lawyer, is called upon when major events in your life occur. With a fine studio portrait you can relive in later years the happiness of the engagement, the wedding, the arrival of children. A photograph is part of forever, and our studio takes this responsibility seriously.

* We are proud to be the photographer chosen to photograph your graduating class. We hope that this is the beginning of a lifelong relationship.

"TO ENDURE IS GREATER THAN TO DARE;
TO TIRE OUT HOSTILE FORTUNE; TO BE
DAUNTED BY NO DIFFICULTY; TO KEEP HEART
WHEN ALL HAVE LOST IT; TO GO THROUGH INTRIGUE SPOTLESS; TO FOREGO EVEN AMBITION
WHEN THE END IS GAINED — WHO CAN SAY THIS IS NOT GREATNESS?"

— from The Virginians by William Makepeace Thackeray

PSALM TWENTY-THREE

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD;
I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN
GREEN PASTURES: HE LEADETH ME
BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL; HE LEADETH
ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS
FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE.
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH,
I WILL FEAR NO EVIL: FOR THOU ART
WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME.
THOU PREPAREST A TABLE BEFORE
ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD
WITH OIL; MY CUP RUNNETH OVER.
SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL
FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE:
AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOREVER.
